The Great Storm

Recent arrivals from the plains bring us more full accounts of the great storm in the valley of the Platte, on the 7th and 8th inst. It was most severe in the vicinity of O'Fallen's Bluffs and Fremont's Spring, but extended for many miles above and below those points. On the 7th the day was pleasant with showers in some places, but travel was kept up by most trains. At night one of the most terrible storms ever known in the Platte valley, set in, and continued throughout the night. Cattle stampeded, were driven before the storm, and in many instances entirely lost Herdsmen who were on guard in some cases attempted to follow their herds, were lost, and several frozen; reports differing from three to eight persons known to have perished, and others missing. There is but little doubt of four men being frozen to death Many cattle and mules are reported frozen — The body of one Indian was also found. Many families are left without teams to prosecute their journey, and remain camped by the roadside. Near Fremont's springs the snow fell near a foot in depth and the 8th was exceedingly cold with driving wind and drifting snow from the north. Full as many suffered or were frozen in the driving blustering snow and wind of that day, as in the bewildering storm of the night before. Any person knowing the names or place of residence of any of the sufferers, are requested to report them to us.

Clear Creek Mines.

Mr. Z. C. Miles, who has been mining for some time past near Spanish bar, has given us some items of interest from that neighborhood. About forty men are at work on Spanish bar, some of them are barely clearing expenses, while others are making big wages Six Mexicans, working a claim together, in one day last week took out $180, and in half of the succeeding day they obtained $150 They can easily make $100 every day they work, but like all Mexicans, they prefer to lie idle at least four or five days each week.

Two Frenchmen on the same bar average $75 per day.

In the vicinity of the mouth of Fall river good prospects have been found and it is the opinion of old prospectors that as good diggings will be found there as any in the neighborhood.

The Pollock lead which passes near the Spanish bar has been as yet but imperfectly prospected.

Wire gold has been found in it, and specimens of quartz taken from it make a good show of gold.

On Soda Hill a lead was struck on the 20th inst., that yielded over $11 to two pans of dirt—the first taken out.

The discovery created great excitement and hundreds rushed to secure claims, but when Mr. M. left, pay dirt had not been found except in the discovery hole. Soda Hill is rich in placer diggings, all over its summit and sides, and probably its source has now been found. The gold obtained is coarse, shot gold, and quite rough.

On the Illinois bar M. J. Dougherty, the well known comedian is making an average of $80 per day, working four hands. He has taken out as high as $150 in a single day. He has about ten feet in depth of pay dirt and very convenient to water.

Others are doing nearly or quite as well.

Mr. Miles is of opinion that the gulch mines on Clear creek are as good as any in the mountains, not even excepting the famous Blue and Arkansas diggings The Clear creek mines are about forty miles from this city, in a due west direction

☞ Reports from all the mining districts continue encouraging. The mines are daily gaining ground, and new districts are opening up in every direction. Hundreds of men are going to Arkansas, Blue river, South Park and Middle Park, and filling up, prospecting and delving in every gulch and ravine, clear up to the base of the snow. The next month will no doubt develop a vast breadth of mining country.

ALBANY, May 18.

One hundred guns are now being fired by the Republicans of this city, in honor of the nomination of Lincoln. The greatest excitement prevails.

Caution to Emigrants.

We learn that the Indians along the Platte road have been recently purchasing from the emigrants, guns, pistols, ammunition and whisky, for which they barter ponies, buffalo robes, &c.

This should be stopped, and stopped at once, or the lives of every one on the road, and in the mines will be endangered. Already two emigrants have been fired upon by the Indians, when hunting in the hills away from the road, and the Indians are looking with jealous eyes upon the rapid encroachments of the whites upon their hunting and camping grounds.

Whisky inflames their passions, and arms and munitions enable them at any moment to commit acts of violence, upon unsuspecting emigrants or settlers. By cultivating their good will and treating them as men, we can live in peace and safety, but acts of violence or wrong committed upon them will call for speedy, sure and terrible revenge.

Do Not Believe Them.

We learn from recently arrived emigrants, that reports have been circulated by some of the disgusted returners, that Denver was surrounded by hostile Indians, and there was every prospect of its being attacked and destroyed They also tell that emigrants upon their arrival are compelled to mount guard, and help protect and defend the town

All these reports are base, black lies, without a shadow of foundation, and the men who are mean and cowardly enough to circulate them, deserve a rope's end.

But few Indians are camped near the city. Their principal villages are on Vasquez river, several miles away, and they are all perfectly friendly, and accompanied by their women, children and herds; sure evidence that no hostility is intended.

A night police has been established by private enterprise, but more to guard against disorder among white men, than from any suspicion of indian depredations.

We understand it is the design of the Indians to remove in a few days, fifteen or twenty miles away.

Register.

The impression having gained currency, and belief among the emigrants on the road that we made a charge for the registry of arrivals, we wish to correct it There is no charge whatever, and our register is becoming of great interest to those coming in who have friends that arrived before; as it materially assists in finding their whereabouts. Over one hundred names are registered daily, and as many as we can find room for are published in the next succeeding issue of our paper.

When registering, the former address should be given and destination if known

We now find it impossible to publish all the names, but shall continue to note the arrival of companies and the names of those who order papers.

☞ The record and its inspection are free to all, and all are invited to call.

☞ FINE SPECIMEN.—Dr. O. D Cass has shown us a specimen of malleable iron and gold recently obtained in one of the leads near Gregory's Its weight is about an ounce; about three-fourths of an inch square, three eighths of an inch in thickness and composed of leaves of pure iron and gold. It is altogether the handsomest and most curious specimen we have ever seen, and entirely new in the history of mineral combinations.

☞ Gov. Steele with his family and effects arrived on Thursday last, to resume his official duties, and take up his residence permanently among us. The Governor is doubtful of our obtaining any territorial organization this session of Congress, and looks upon our provisional organization as the only safe recourse. Many earnest friends will welcome Gov. Steele's return to the land of his choice.

☞ A man working at one of the brick yards above the city, one night last week when getting into bed, noticed a strange buzzing noise near him, but thought nothing of it until his bed fellow came, when the noise occurred again. The last comer in reply to the others inquiry, after listening a moment said "rattlesnake," whereupon the sleeper very hastily turned out and upon making a search, a snake with thirteen rattles was found snugly coiled away between the blankets. Look out for snakes.

☞ John A. Lynch, Esq., State's Attorney for Frederick county, Md, has given an opinion that the New York Tribune is an incendiary (Abolition) journal, and that every postmaster in that county who delivers it is subject to an indictment.

Theatrical.

On Wednesday evening of last week Madamoiselle Haydee returned from the States with her new troupe for the spring and summer season. On Saturday evening the Apollo was again opened under the old management of M'lle Haydee and Sisters, with a company consisting of the following talented gentlemen, recently of St. Louis Messrs. Herbert Pardey, H. B. Norman, A L. Gooding, W H. Partello, R. G. Wilmot and R, J Johnson, and those well known lady artistes M'lle Haydee and Misses Louise and Flora Wakely.

The play was the "Lady of Lyons," Mr. Pardey as Claude Melnotte and M'lle Haydee as Pauline, who sustained their parts to perfection, as did all the characters presented. The piece was received with frequent applause and at the falling of the curtain M'lle Haydee and Mr. Pardey were called out and warmly applauded

A dance by the charming Miss Flora, was followed by "Nan, the good for nothing," M'lle Haydee as Nan, in which character she cannot be excelled. The farce throughout was played to perfection There was a full house and universal satisfaction.

On Monday night was played "William Tell" and "Swiss Cottage," Tuesday night the "Stranger" and "Conjugal Lesson," all of which were presented to the entire satisfaction of large and appreciative audiences

The wardrobe of the gentlemen actors has not yet arrived, but will no doubt, by the last of the week, when the Apollo will fully rival the old St. Louis or Woods

To-night will be presented the great drama of the "Idiot Witness," followed by a dance by M'lle Haydee and Miss Flora, to conclude with the "Naval Engagement" An excellent cast of characters will be presented and no one can regret a few pleasant hours at the Apollo to-night. Mr. Pardey well deserves the name of "The Young American Tragedian," and is evidently a rising star of the first magnitude. Mr Johnston was for a long time the stage manager of the St Louis Theatre, while under the proprietorship of Mr Farren, and can hardly fail in the same capacity in our city.

Indians and Whisky.

A few unprincipled persons in this city still persist in selling whisky to the Indians despite the known wishes of the citizens, and frequent warning in our columns.

There is no one, but can be fully aware of the great risk in such proceedure, and the man who will still continue to violate United States laws, and peril the public safety, is unfit to live in civilized society. He should be driven away to the land of the savages and wild beasts, where his culpable recklessness can bring vengeance only upon his own head.

Since Congress cannot deign to notice us, but persistently refuses to hear, or heed our frequent and urgent demands for protection against Indian aggression, for postal facilities, and other privileges justly our due, and usually extended to communities of American citizens; we call upon our people, and urge them to rise in their might, and at once put a stop to this illegal, and dangerous traffic with our Indian neighbors.

One or two examples of a gentle application of Judge Lynch's practice—say thirty and nine lashes, and a free ticket to leave—would effectually check such proceedings we think, and no time should be lost in trying the experiment.

The Japanese presents were opened this morning for inspection, and then transferred to the naval commission to be presented privately to the President, in the name of his imperial majesty, the Tycoon The articles are of the most magnificent description, saddles, richly embossed in gold and silver, bed curtains, bed screens, similar to those used by the princes of Japan, and ingeniously laborated, two swords, such as are worn by the princes of Japan, superior to any ever manufactured either in this country or France, paper hanging, ornamented with gold, &c., lacquered ware, including writing cases and a lot of valuable miscellaneous articles, all of them exhibiting a most refined taste and advanced artistic skill, and superior to any which have ever been brought to this country from Asia.

FOUNTAIN CITY, May 28, 1860.

EDITOR NEWS —Twenty months ago I came to this country by the Arkansas route from Kansas City. In passing over a portion of the same road a few days since, I could not but reflect on the extraordinary changes that have taken place, of which the greates thave been in the north so far, but recent gold discoveries and natural advantages now promise to make equally as great, on this side of the divide. The amount of trade that will be done with Mexico, will find a natural road to the mines via Canon city, also the greater portion of travel from the states I have just returned from a trip into the mountains by that way, and on my way out met the first of the incoming crowd. The first day I met fifteen emigrant wagons, mostly from Missouri and Arkansas and thirteen of the large prairie schooners belonging to St. Vrain & Esterday, ladened with fifty-five hundred pounds each, for the mines. They were then over the worst part of the road, and the wagon master expressed himself satisfied that it is the best natural road in the country. The next day between Canon and Fountain Cities, I met over forty teams bound for the head waters of the Platte, Arkansas and Colorado rivers Amongst them were many women, young and old, which is the best indication of good settlers. At Fountain City, I found one of the old settlers, John Wright Esq, who had just arrived with his lady. He told me that the coming emigration was very large, but not so great as by the Platte route, as Denver City is the point that two-thirds of the crowd start for. At this point Mr A F Bercow has put a bridge across the Arkansas river, so that high water will not affect the Mexican travel The farming portion of the settlers are exerting themselves to plant and sow every inch of ground they possibly can get in before it is too late, confident of being well repaid for their labor I know of several farmers that have now under cultivation between one hundred and two hundred acres each Amongst others are Messrs. Kroeing, Doyle, Jenks and Young You may expect a regular supply of fresh vegetables from them very soon. Those persons who come to the country with the intention of farming, I would strongly advise to look at the Arkansas country before settling, as there are plenty of good claims to be had yet, that in a few years will be worth a small fortune.

In regard to the gold reports, I am acquainted with many good reliable men, who have been engaged in exploring and prospecting the country, both last fall and this spring, and I consider that there is no doubt but that the great bulk of gulch diggings will be found there.

Yours respectfully,

ARKANSAS.

Advices from Peru state that Lima and Callas were badly damaged by earthquakes on the 22d April. In the former city, two hundred and fifty buildings were damaged, involving the loss of $1,000,000 The watering place near Lima, called Chorillo, was entirely destroyed. Many people were killed and a very large number were seriously injured.

The Census of 1860.

The following excellent take off on the questions proposed to be asked by the takers of the census 1860, has been variously credited to the Buffalo Express and the Cleveland Plaindealer. Without attempting to settle the question of paternity, we present it as we find it:

What is your age?

Where were you born?

Are you married, and if so, how do you like it?

How many children have you, and do they sufficiently resemble you as to preclude the possibility of their belonging to any of your neighbors?

Did you ever have the measles and if so how many?

Have you a twin brother several years older than yourself?

Have you parents and if so, how many of them?

Do you read the New Testament regularly?

What is your fighting weight?

Which do you like best for light reading, "The Gun Maker of Moscow," by Cobb, or the President's last message, by J B?

How many times has your wife wished she was dead, and did you reciprocate the wish?

Were you and your wife worth anything when married, and if not, what proportion of her things were your'n, and your things were her'n?

Were you ever in the Penitentiary?

How will the coming Heenan-Sayers fight for the championship affect the sale of Hawthorn's Marble Faun?

If four barrels of emptins poured on a barn floor will cover it, how many plays can Dion Bourcicault write in a year?

Are you troubeld with biles?

How many empty bottles have you in the house?

How does your meersehaum color?

Have you all of Thayer's speeches on the horse railroad?

Are beans an article of regular diet in your family, and if so, how does it go?

State whether you are blind, deaf, idiotic or have the heaves?

How many chickens have you, and are they on foot or in the shell? Also, how many succedaneums?

Is there a strawberry mark on your left arm?

Which food do you perfer, rum or mixed drinks?

State how much pork, impending crisis, Dutch cheese, popular sovereingty, standard poetry, Gayety paper, slave code, catnip, red flannel, Constitution and Union, old junk, perfumery coal oil, liberty, hooped skirt, &c., you have on hand?

Persons likely to be "ceasured" will do well to cut the above out and put it up in a conspicuous place

BALTIMORE, May 15.

Hon John Bell and family came passengers by the yesterday afternoon train from Philadelphia, en route to the West. The train arrived too late to connect and he took the late way train and stopped for the night at the Relay House, nine miles from this city. He goes West this morning, over the Baltimore & Ohio Road, in a special car provided by the company.

☞ THE LONDON UNION BANK ROBBERY —The amount stolen from this bank by Wm G. Pullinger, Cashier, was $1,300,000. The Union bank kept its accounts with the Bank of England. ☞ A SCENE.—Dry-goods stores are sometimes the scenes of humerous conversation

The other day a young lady stepped into a well known establishment in town and inquired of a fine looking young clerk—

"Sir have you any mouse-colored ladies' gloves?"

"Mouse-colored ladies', miss?"

"Yes—a sort of gray—just the color of your drawers here;" meaning the store drawers, of course, which were painted gray

"My drawers, miss," ejaculated the young man, glancing downward to see if everything was right and tight. "My drawers, miss, why I don't wear any"

The young lady was carried home on a shutter.

[From the St Jo Journal of the 19th inst.]

From Chicago—Lincoln Nominated for President, and Hamlin for Vice President

CHICAGO, May 18.

Convention called to order at 10 o'clock A. M.

After some other preliminary business, the convention proceeded, at 11 o'clock, to ballot for a candidate for President, with the following result:

The first ballot was announced as follows: total 465, necessary to a choice 233—Seward 173 1-2; Lincoln, 102; Bates, 48; Cameron, 50 1-2; McLean, 12; Chase, 49; Wade, 5, Fremont 1; Dayton, 14; Collamer, 10; Reed, 1; Sumner 1.

Second ballot: total vote, 465; necessary to a choice, 233; Seward, 184 1-2; Lincoln, 181, Bates 39; Cameron, 8; Chase, 2 1-2, Dayton, 10; Cassius M. Clay, 2.

The third ballot was taken amidst excitement and cries of ballot.

The cannon are firing for Lincoln's nomination, and the tumultuous assembly is wild with enthusiasm. New York desired the silence of the cannon. B Gratz Brown, on behalf of Missouri, cast her 18 votes for that gallant son of the West, Abe Lincoln. Kentucky, Maine, Virginia, California, Texas, District of Columbia, Kansas and Nebraska cast unanimous votes for Lincoln.

Intense feeling existed during the ballot, each vote being awaited in breathless silence and expectancy. Rhode Island, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Kentucky and Ohio changed their vote, giving Lincoln 23 1-2, or within 1 1-2 of nomination.

Mr Andrews, of Mass., then rose and corrected the votes of Massachusetts, by changing 4 votes and giving them to Lincoln, thus nominating him by 2 1-2 majority.

Intelligence of the nomination was now conveyed to the men on the roof of the building, who immediately made the outside multitude aware of the result. The first roar of the cannon soon mingled itself with the cheers of the people, and at the same moment a man appeared in the Hall bearing a large painting of Lincoln. The scene at this time, beggars all description, there being 11,000 people inside the building, and from 20 000 to 30,000 outside all yelling and shouting at once. The cannon sent forth roar after roar in rapid succession The delegates tore up the sticks and boards bearing the names of the several States and waved them aloft over the heads of the vast multitude. Hats, and handkerchiefs were waving and the whole scene was one of the wildest enthusiasm.

The result of the third ballot was then announced as follows: whole number of votes 466, necessary to a choice 234—Abraham Lincoln received 354 votes and was duly declared nominated; Seward received 110 1-2, Dayton 1; McLean 1-2.

The result was received with renewed applause

The President announced the business before the convention, to ballot for Vice President.

John Hickman, of Pennsylvania, N. P. Banks, of Massachusetts, C M. Clay, of Kentucky, Governor Reeder, of Pennsylvania, and Hannibal Hamlin, of Maine, were named as candidates.

First ballot: Hamlin 165, Clay 51 1-2, Hickman 58, Reeder 51, Banks 38 1-2, Winter Davis and Houston of Texas 6, Dayton 3, Reed 1. Whole number of votes cast 361. Necessary to a choice 232.

Second ballot, N. P. Banks and Gov Reeder were withdrawn. The result was as follows:

Hamlin 367, Clay 86, Hickman 13. The result was received with tremendous applause.

After several addresses, and unimportant motions, the Convention adjourned sine die, with nine hearty cheers for the ticket Immediately on adjournment one hundred guns were fired from the roof of the Tremont House.
